Important Disclosures & Definitions

30-Day SEC Yield: reflects the dividends and interest earned during the period, after the deduction of the Fund's expenses. The 30-Day SEC Yield is calculated by dividing the total amount of dividends and interest accruing during the most recent 30 days by the average share outstanding for the period divided by 30. The 30-Day SEC Yield is expressed as a percentage.

Net Asset Value (NAV): the per-share dollar amount of the fund is derived by dividing the total value of assets, less liabilities, by the number of fund shares outstanding.

Market Price: based on the midpoint of the bid/ask spread at 4 p.m. ET and does not represent the current share price.

30-Day SEC Yield (AMLP): reflects the dividends and interest earned during the period, after the deduction of the Fund's expenses, including current or deferred income tax expense (if any), divided by the average share outstanding during the period and annually compounded.

30-Day SEC Yield (TR): reflects the total return of the fund for the most recent quarter and year, after the deduction of the Fund's expenses, calculated by adding back any capital gains or losses, and expressed in percentages.

RiverFront Strategic Income Fund Objective: seeks to provide income through a combination of capital appreciation and income and to limit interest rate risk. The performance of the Fund relative to its benchmark will depend largely on the decisions of the investment manager and on the general economic conditions and developments, and characterized by intense competition and periodic overbuilding. Credit spreads may vary from time to time or for extended periods of time. The performance of the Fund is related to the market sectors that RiverFront may elect to emphasize or deemphasize from time to time, as well as the individual securities selected by RiverFront within those sectors. The investment returns for particular market sectors will fluctuate and may be lower than other sectors. In addition, the individual securities chosen for investment within a particular sector may underperform other securities within that same sector. Certain bonds selected for the Fund's portfolio may decline in value more than the overall bond market.
